~~Tom Brooks~~

1957

I would like to use this space to thank my staff for the many hours they have unselfishly devoted toward the completion of this book.

THE STAFF

Ken Hannah Sports Editor
Jim Thornton Copy Editor
Buzzy Butler Art Editor
Bob Hood Business Manager
Jim Justice Sales & Circulation Manager
Evelyn Arias Typist
Dale Griffin Photographer

has been invaluable to me during the last few months in the production of your yearbook.

My special thanks also goes to our adviser, Miss Sally Matheson, Mr. Mastin, Matchette Studio, and Hurst Studio, for their cooperation and helpfulness.

Your Editor,

Linda Sallaberry

In grateful appreciation of all the time and understanding you have given us, we, the students, dedicate this, the "'57" Blue and White, to you.

★ DANCES ★

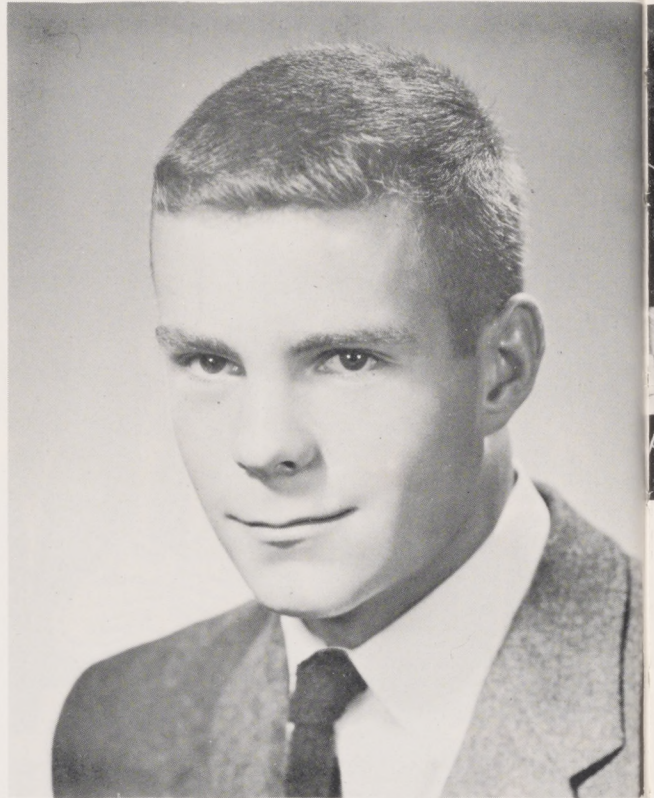

"We intellectuals lead rather crude social lives."

AN APPOINTMENT

Remember this one? They were skiing!! Oh, well, maybe Jackie and Moe danced enough to stay warm.

At right is one more of the fabulous Jr. Revue acts, Sally Baker, Linda Snapp, & Kay Butler doing their version of a Chinese dance.

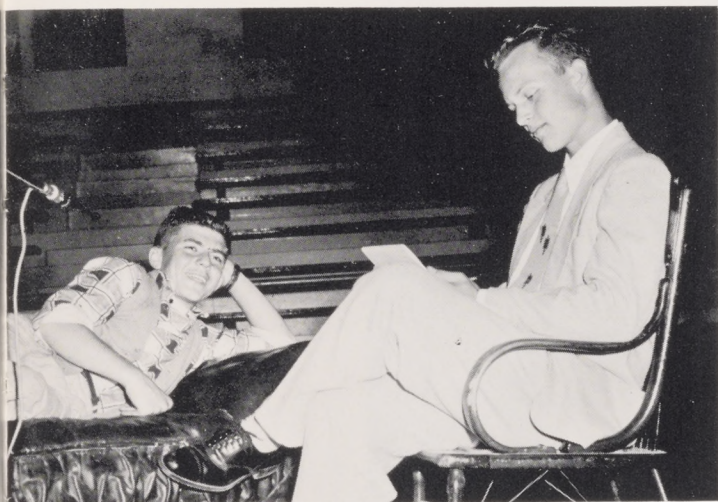

The spectacular Junior Revue, "An Appointment with Doctor Floyd", was written and directed by Ken Butler.

WITH DR. FLOYD

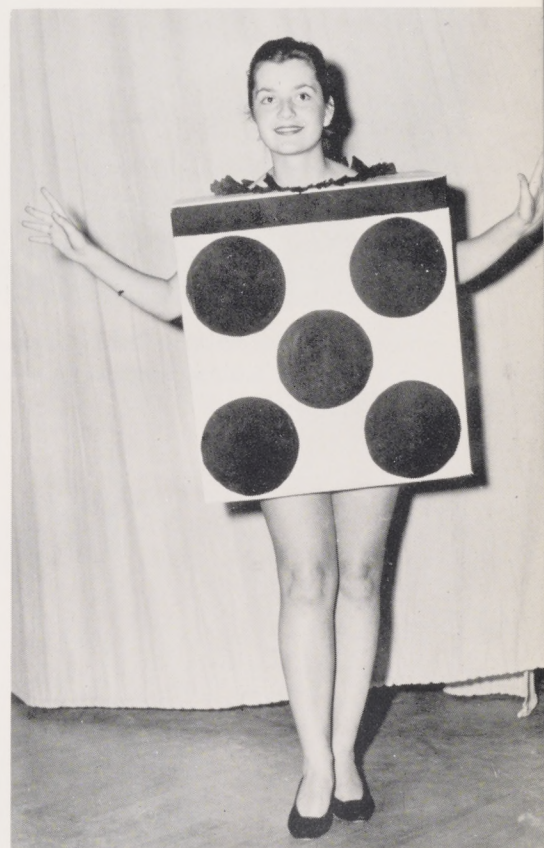

Rodger Simonian seems to be having a good time lying there on that psychiatrist's couch; what a soft job John Cavin has!

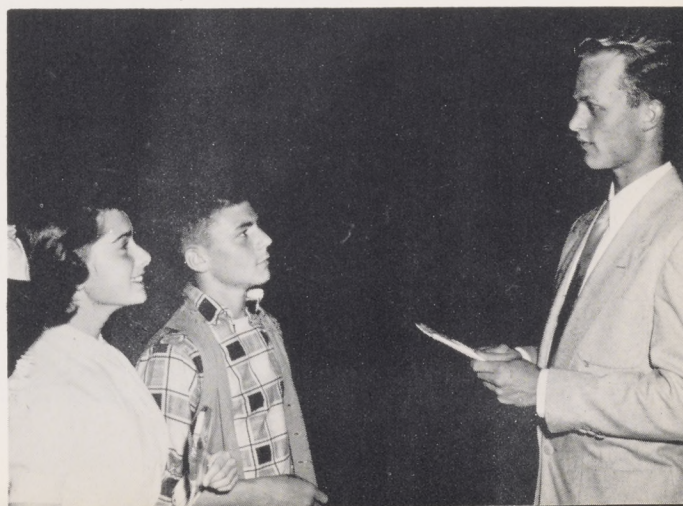

"One lump or two, and turn down that awful Rock and Roll music", says Rick Martin to cousin Larry.

The Rev. John Cavin says
"Rodger do you take this girl".
... Relax, its only a play.

Above is Linda Melikian who was one of the dominoes in the New Orleans scene.

John Lilles and Bobby Hood seem to be reconciled to their lot. Slave Day was a big success this year, and everyone—even the slaves—had fun.

SLAVE DAY

Frank April was the slave of Ann McMurray, Mary James, and Sylvia Allred.

Mike Cox and Kathy Hamer come down the slippery slide at the Turkey Trot. A Boys' Fed. project, this dance was a huge success.

TURKEY TROT

Here are a few couples dancing to the music of Eddie Sims.

..... a few words from the annual staff to show our appreciation to our advisor for all the help she has given us; many thanks,

Miss Sally Matheson

Here he is, the man mainly responsible for the success of the Senior Play,

Mr. Richard Berger

CHRISTMAS BALL

Above: Cinderella (Joanne Olivas) comes floating down the stairs and is met by Prince Charming (Clarence Yllaregui) and off they go to the Christmas Ball.

Below are many of the couples who were at the Christmas Ball caught by the camera unawares.

Here they are! The king and queen of the Freshman-Sophomore reception, Carol Averill and Bobby Greer. That's Carla Oberti at the mike.

Below are several dancing couples who are evidently having a very good time.

A black and white portrait of a young woman, Melinda Robinson, smiling and looking slightly to her right. She has short, wavy, light-colored hair. She is wearing a sleeveless dress with a pattern of vertical lines of small stars. She is holding a large bouquet of white flowers with long stems. The background is a plain, light color.

The Coyotes this year started the season with an array of veterans, mostly in the backfield and the center of the offensive line. Moving in the season we took our first three practice games and then moved into League competition against Fresno Hi, but dropped it by a score of 9—0. Then Roosevelt and Merced fell beneath our paw by scores of 33—20 and 20—7 respectfully. By these two performances we were in a position where the winner of the Edison Game would be League Champions. Over 2500 loyal Madera fans watched Madera give everything they had as the Coyotes battled down to the final gun at the recreation park in Fresno. We of the Madera Hi football team wish to thank the loyal fans who filled the stadium every game.

Planning ahead isn't always the best thing to do but as we look at it the Varsity should have about sixteen returning veterans back for this year's varsity squad. As we look at it now with our scheduled prominent coaching staff and the boys to return the football picture at Madera High looks bright unless we have the misfortune to encounter a situation as that at North High.

"TOUHDOWN BOUND"

Above: Halfback Lloyd Amey, 41, bulls his way over for a Coyote score against Roosevelt. This touchdown came to us through the courtesy of the line men in the picture. Left to right we see Rollo Lasher 94, Clarence Ylarregui on the ground, John Lilles kneeling, Lloyd Amey with the ball Topper Haney 82, blocking and Leroy Griggs 64.

Lloyd Amey 41, again rips off yardage against Roosevelt. All League Q.B. Bob Hart 1, slants to take his man out as Buzzy Butler 32, looks on.

MADERA HI FANS this year and last have seen perhaps the greatest ball carrier ever to wear a coyote football uniform. His name is Lloyd Amey. Lloyd was a big cog in the Championship machinery of 1955 and in the victorious coyote varsity of 1956. Lloyds accomplishments are as follows: in 1955 he was All League Halfback, top ground gainer in the Northern Yosemite Loop. His total yardage for 10 games was 1048 at 104 per game. In 1956 Lloyd was choosen Most valuable player, and was nominated for a position in the Shrine All Star Game. Lloyds total yardage for this year was 1025 in 9 games, for a game average of 113. We of Madera feel that performances like Lloyds must not go unrewarded.

"COYOTES IN ACTION"

UPPER LEFT: All League Quarterback Bob Hart No 1 scoots end for a good gain against Tulare. Coming into the picture is Senior end Bob Hood, No 81. Tulare Player 14 got taken out the Hard Way on this play. Score Madera 12 Hanford 0. UPPER RIGHT: Daryl Wolf, 21, Halfback, tears around end with some help from Lloyd Amey, 41, against Fresno Hi. Madera dropped its league opener to the Warriors 9—0. LOWER LEFT: Hank Hernandez, Understudy Quarterback goes for yardage against Roosevelt. It must have been that 11 yards for 1 carry we always saw in the Local Papers. Madera 30 Roosevelt 20. LOWER RIGHT: Jerry Martin, 23, Halfback rocks Merced for plenty of yardage. All that hand around his foot got was plenty of cleat marks to remember him by. The Madera man on the ground is apparently Lloyd Amey. Madera 20 Merced 7.

Coaches Warner & Lowry started out with green stock this year and came up with a team that went undefeated. The pups started off the season as defending League Champions and proved their right to the title right down to the wire. By Mid-season our backfield was rounded into one of the most potent and well balanced backfields in the Valley. The team gave only 45 points during the season while scoring 206 point. Sporting a 9—0 record this team could well go down in the books as one of the schools most successful B Teams.

This makes two consecutive B League titles garnished by the Coyote Pups. Quite an accomplishment for any team with the competition we have in the Yosemite League.

The B Team awards this year went as follows:

Team Captain: Rookie Sordi

Outstanding Back: Ray Byers

Outstanding Lineman: Dim Sambueso

Madera's Pups have been on the upgrade since the appearance of Coach Warner and Coach Lowry on the B coaching staff. Their team closed out the season in a Big way, giving them a 15—2—1 record for two years and two league championships in 1955 and 1956.

Coach Hodges shows Walter Price a simple trick with the ball as the manager looks on.

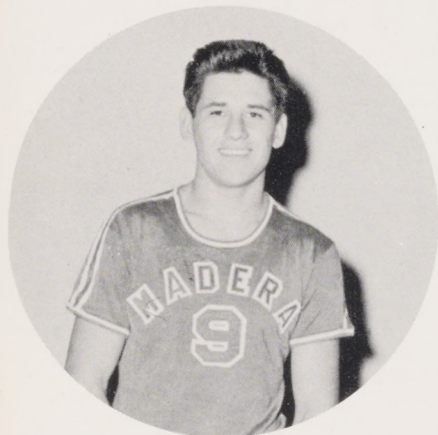

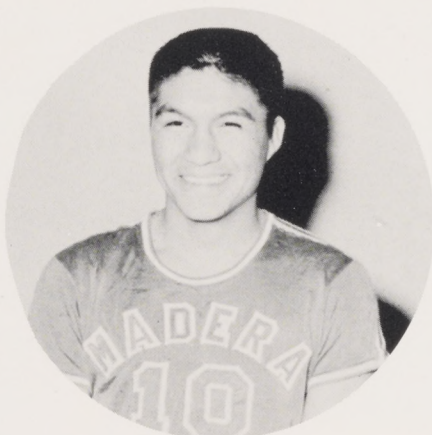

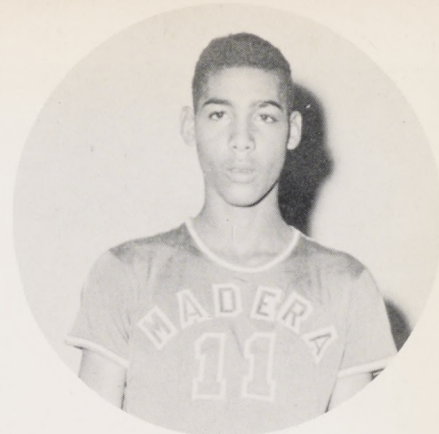

This year, again the Coyotes had to take the short end of the scoreboard. For three months, Coach Hodges and these 14 boys practiced faithfully every night in their attempt to try and break in on a winning combination.

Things didn't look too bright this year, but the experience the boys gained will come in handy next year. Experience for next year's club never sounds like a good idea for the seniors of any club, but the boys put out everything they had in a desperate attempt to salvage their record and that's all anyone can ask of its team.

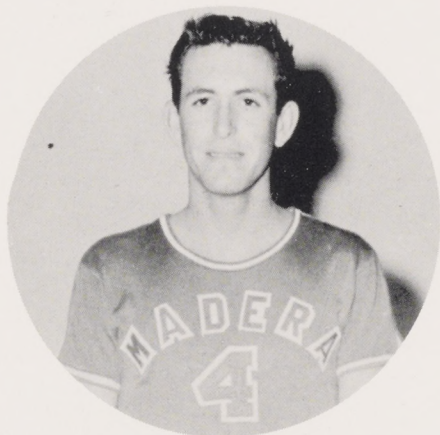

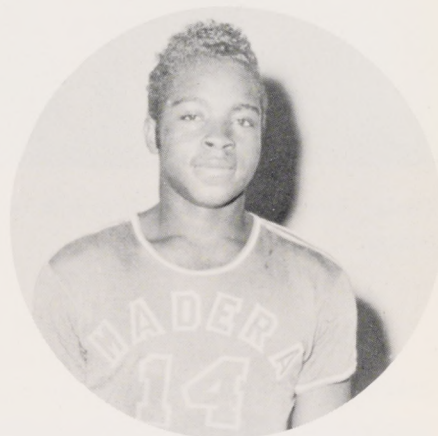

Johnny Diaz and Walter Price were the big point makers but Johnny had the margin. Another boy who did the rebounding for the club is John Malone, and junior. Here is next year's talent: Faville Steen, John Malone, Delmer McAlister, Walter Slaven.

B BASKETBALL

The Coyote Pup's cage team found the going tough this year, with the majority of them being green to the B team. The Pup's managed to win only two out of sixteen games. The team was headed by Goose Busby and De Macieo Nieto. Coach Woodbury's prospects will be Curtis Session, De Macieo Nieto, Phil Farias, John Monroe, and Jose Edwards.

The GAA came around to full swing this year with the opening of the new girls gym. The new gym meant that their activities would not interfere with the boys intramural. The members of GAA have had their most successful year in a long time and contributions of Miss Bowlus have gone far to make the year complete for the Girls' Athletic Association of 1957.
